Company Background:

Nan Hwa (Express) was founded in 1962, initially engaging in air ticket services between Hong Kong and Indonesia, as well as air freight and courier services. The company incorporated as Nan Hwa (Express) Travel Service Limited from 1972 and by 1983 became accredited as part of IATA (International Air Transport Association) Travel Agents. As a wholesale consolidator, we serve over 60 airlines including strong liaison with the international hotel brands to cater our sub-agents needs. We operate on most of the major computerized ticketing systems in the industry including Abacus, Amadeus, Galileo and Worldspan for a equilibrium market share.

Wholesale Leisure & Hotel

This department provides travellers with a wide range of preferred leisure package, wherever there is a flight, we have a package for your holiday. The department also handles hotel reservation services for accommodation worldwide. Whether it is for a business or leisure trip, our in-house Traveller Booking System (TBS) offers the best rate of more than 200,000 properties in more than 180 countries.

Corporate Travel:

Business Management is also our specialty; our Corporate NHE Travel Department provides tailor-made service for business trips, site visits and conferences. Professionalism remains a priority and our dedicated teams of professional travel consultants providing fast and reliable travel services to our corporate customers; closely monitoring our client's knitted itineraries with exactitude in befitting details to their accommodation and transport needs.

Global Travel Network & Partnership:

To secure the entrepreneurial independence of our company, we have joined the Lufthansa City Center (LCC) network in 2010, stepping up an even high-level of service on our privately owned company with the advantages of an internationally operating travel agency organization. LCC NHE Travel has now acquired the title 'Business Travel', a significant milestone as it is an additional quality seal for corporate travel agencies within the Lufthansa City Center Network and enhances our international travel agency network expands with well over 630 branches in 84 countries.

We are moving apace with corporate clients, providing services tailored to their growing business needs, and we always bring to what our name always stands for;

- Numerous cost saving solutions
- High quality and
- Efficient service

Expansion in China:

NHE Travel strives for the delivery of the highest quality standards and is committed to provide personal service in a global level with national and international key accounts. We further expanded our horizon by moving into China and established an office in Guangzhou in 2013, opening a new gateway to numerous potential business opportunities and cooperation on international level.

Annual Business Turnover & Market Share in 2025:

As of today, we hold a 9.8% market share of ticket sales, based on the HK$29.6 billion IATA BSP annual sales record for 2025. This translates into a total business turnover of HK$2.9 billion for NHE in 2025.
